LITTONIAN

published

BY THE SENIOR CLASS

OF ISAAC LITTON HIGH SCHOOL

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

the Littonian for 1953

SETTING:

Our school—campus
classrooms
library
cafeteria
gymnasium

CHARACTERS:

Student, Teachers, and Friends

PLOT:

The plot began to unfold last fall and developed against the backdrop of the changing seasons with activities on the athletic field, in the club rooms, in classes, and in and around the school. It is one phase of a continuous drama.

PROGRAM NOTES:

The purpose is to spotlight scenes from this drama. A program may suggest the framework, but only those who have lived the action can give it form.
The staff hopes THE LITTONIAN will be the program you will always keep from the play you will always remember.

CLASS POEM

Four years have swiftly passed away
And as this poem is written
The time has almost come to bid
"Good-bye" to dear old Litton.

The end of one milestone's in sight;
We recollect those years,
Some filled with gladness and delight
And some perhaps with tears.

The memories that we take away
Will always prove a treasure;
They'll never fail to shift our thoughts
To many scenes of pleasure.

And we shall not forget our school;
To Litton we'll be true,
And in the future if we meet
We'll cheer the "Red and Blue!"

As down the path of life we go
Both joy and grief we'll see,
But smiles will come with memories of
This Class of '53.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Delta Tau Phi Chapter of the National Honor Society was installed to promote high standards of character, scholarship, leadership, and service among the students. Twice each year students of the Junior and Senior Classes who have excelled in these four fields and who have received the approval of the faculty are initiated into the chapter.

The president is the Senior member who has the highest scholastic average. The remaining officers are elected.

The motto is "I would rather have honor than honors."

"A season of superlatives" could well describe the 1952 football season as the Isaac Litton Lions roared to the greatest football year in the history of the school.

Climaxing the fall by being selected the second best aggregation in the state, the Lions, under the able tutelage of Coaches Bob Cummings, John Witt, Ronald Webb, and Herschel Moore, ended the regular season's play with a record of nine wins and one defeat—the lone loss being to the state's top-ranking team.

The eleven closed an impressive year by defeating Father Ryan's team in the annual Clinic Bowl tilt Thanksgiving Day in Vanderbilt's Dudley Stadium.

Behind the vicious blocking and tackling of a stalwart forward wall, one of the finest backfields ever to perform on Hume Marshall Field paced the Lions in their soar to "higher ground."

Seniors performing in their final season at Litton were Co-Captains Rip Nix and Charles Harmon, Gray Potter, George Volkert, Jerry Kemp, Larry Wray, L. F. McClellan, Wilson West, Walter Reasoner, Billy Belcher, Billy McMahon, Ralph McDonald, Gary Morgan, and John Gordy.

Meriting positions on various all-star teams were George Volkert (the first player in the history of Nashville high school football to make the All-American squad), John Gordy, Gray Potter, L. F. McClellan, Rip Nix, and Jerry Kemp.

This most eventful football season was officially closed at the football banquet with the presentation of the trophies designating Litton as the winner of the N.I.L.'s Class AA division.

Second Row: George Volkert, Jerry Kemp, Ralph McDonald, Billy Kee, Raymond Barrett, Willard Adams.

Football Managers

Floyd Hamilton, Bobby Bledsoe, Monty Gilpin, Robert Stacey.

In the Clinic Bowl game Jerry Kemp, Gray Potter, and George Volkert attempt to catch a pass.

In the Clinic Bowl game, Volkert goes up the middle for a fifteen yard gain.

Kemp makes a touchdown during the M. B. A. game.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The 1952-53 boys' basketball team, under the coaching of John Witt, proved to be one of the most formidable hardwood units ever to represent Litton in the cage sport.

Although the boys lost out during the final week of the season in their bid for the fourth place position in the 19th District, the starting five of Co-Captains Gray Potter and George Volkert, Gary Page, Joe Ray, and Larry Tillman was rated by many opponents as one of the best in the league.

Their "race-horse" style of play was feared by many opponents, and the boys demonstrated some of the N. I. L.'s best basketball in their impressive victories over the highly-rated East Eagles and the powerful Central Tornadoes.

A bright spot of the season was the sparkling court play of sophomore Phil Hargis and junior Joe Ray, who was chosen on one of the All-Nashville teams.

The Lions were knocked from tournament contention in the 19th District semifinals by DuPont, following an early round victory over the Antioch Bears.

George Volkert was chosen the most valuable player on the team, and Hargis was nominated as the most improved.

Second Row: Ann Nichols, Earlene Martin, Emily Rawls, Lorele Elam, Shirley Batson, Shirley Mayfield, Joyce McMurtry, Wendle Englert, Ernestine Hightower, Barbara Law, Glenda Compton, Mary Jo Collier.
Standing: Nancy Perry, Manager and Coach Carney.

GIRLS'

Coach Jesse Carney's Lionesses were very successful this year. Led by high scoring Glenda Compton at forward, the offense was very overwhelming to opponents. The guards were inspired by Captain Earlene Martin; they held the opponents' offense to a low average of points. Litton again this year placed a player on the all-city team, Glenda Compton. Captain Earlene Martin and Freshman Emily Rawls made all weekly several times during the season.

1953

Since the 1953 baseball season is currently history in the making, we have decided to publish the results of last year's baseball season in this yearbook. However, in the picture below are the members of the 1953 Litton diamond performers that were on the 1952 baseball squad also. Boys starring on last year's excellent baseball unit who have graduated are Raymond Hunter, Don Hayes, Johnny DuVal, and Wayne Evans. The 1952 managers were Bobby McGlothlin and Dickie Parsons.

ALMA MATER

Let our voices loudly ringing
Echo far and near,
Songs of praise our children singing
To thy memory dear.

Chorus: Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Tender, fair, and true,
Faithful sons and loyal daughters
Vows of love renew.

All the days we've spent together
Fondly we recall,
Days of fair and stormy weather
Thou hast gladdened all.

Years may dim our recollection,
Time its change may bring,
Still thy name in fond affection
Evermore we'll sing.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1953

We, the Senior Class, at the end of our four year term, leave on parole trying to go straight. To our inmates who we so sadly leave behind we do bequeath the following to encourage and help them along to the end of their sentence.

Article I

To the Freshman Class, we leave one hundred and ninety-five slightly used striped uniforms.

To the Sophomore Class, we leave one hundred and ninety-five lead balls with very short chains.

To the Junior Class, we leave one hundred and ninety-five cell blocks to relieve crowded conditions.

To the Faculty we leave our appreciation for their guidance, training, and supervision.

To Miss Spurlock, we leave ragged play books, rolls of cellophane, and much gratitude for being such a good sponsor.

To Mrs. Gee, we leave a messy room, a stack of bills, and many thanks.

To the future sailors on the sea of Secretarial Science, we leave our dear Cap'n Brown.
